

Summer 2020 INDUSTRY EVALUATION OF INTERN PERFORMANCE

Construction Management Program Assessment – Recent Intern Evaluations by Construction Firms

Introduction

In the first self-assessment and comparison beginning in the fall of 2002, the CM Intern Performance Evaluation Committee defined the CM Educational Outcomes. The committee has since asked CM Interns to base their job performance on the CM Program Expected Educational Outcomes. This is a direct result of the committee's efforts to enhance the CM academic program and the CM Program Expected Educational Outcomes.

CM Expected Educational Outcomes

The Expected Educational

1. Have the ability to work with all people.
2. Have the ability to think and act logically.
