Section ,9 Head of Household Eligibility

If you were eligible to file as head of household (despite being married), complete this section. 3OHDVH Initial each of the requirements below if applicable to \RXU tax filing circumstances.

Head of Household Eligibility Requirements

By initialing next to each requirement, you are certifying that \RX meet this requirement. For more information, please see IRS Publication 17.

Please note, all three of these requirements must be met, in order to file as Head of Household.

Were married but were considered "unmarried" as of December 31, (Please explain in Section 9). The Head of Household filing status is for unmarried individuals who provide a home for certain other persons. Per the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) a person is considered unmarried for this purpose if any of the following appl\:

- Were legally separated according to your state law under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance at the end of . But if, at the end of the divorce was not final (an interlocutory decree), they are considered married.
- Were married but lived apart from their spouse for the entire last 6 months of and meet the other rules under married persons who
